CMBA recognizes that the tryout/evaluation process at the Representative levels can be a stressful time for players and parents alike. CMBA will strive to keep the process as clear and open as possible, while being impartial and minimizing bias. Player evaluations will always be conducted by a minimum of two Independent Evaluators. An Independent Evaluator will be defined as a person of whom is or does not have any type of personal connection, whether it be family members, close family friends, or “skin in the game” situation that can affect judgement during a tryout or evaluation process. No parents will be permitted to assess their own children or be involved in the execution of drills in order to eliminate bias. However, parents with players in the division may help to coordinate the overall evaluation session, and assist with catching balls, warming up kids, and other items that will not directly influence the evaluation of the players.

Camrose Minor Ball is aware that there are multiple conflicts with the 11U AA groupings due to approx 17 players still being in hockey playoffs and the potential of it affecting this weekend and next pending results.

We appreciate the notifications and will do what we can to accomodate. Unfortunately how this may work at this time is unknown as we await further results from teams this weekend.

Please do your best to make what you can and we will continue to stay in touch to find out if we need to make any additional arrangements going forward.

If you have any questions please contact Clint Mitchell at aadirector@camroseball.com or Ryan Foss at president@camroseball.com

Thanks
